

APPLICATION FORM

Moirā Shire Council's Community Leadership Program, funded under the Community Recovery Hubs Program (HUBS) in response to the October 2022 Flood event, aims to enhance community resilience and preparedness. The Program focusses on equipping community members with the leadership skills necessary to navigate and mitigate the impacts of emergencies, thereby fostering cohesion and resilience for future challenges.

For more information on the program, including the proposed dates and session format, please visit Council's website - www.moirā.vic.gov.au/Community-Leadership-Program-2024

If you would prefer to submit a hard copy application, please visit - <https://moira.smartygrants.com.au/CommunityLeadershipProgram2024>

PROCESS:

The Community Leadership Program is open to all individuals who meet the application guidelines. Applications open Monday 29 July and close at 4pm on Friday 16 August 2024.

Council Officers will assess the applications to ensure applicants are eligible and suitable for the Program. There is capacity for up to 20 people in the Program. Participants will be notified of the outcome from the week commencing Monday 26 August 2024.

Hard copy applications are available from Council Service Centres or by contacting the Community Wellbeing Department on (03) 5871 9222 or via email communityleadership@moira.vic.gov.au.

GUIDELINES:

Applicants must:

- Be 18 years or over.
- Live in or work within the Moirā Shire Local Government Area.
- Have a desire to develop your leadership skills in order to contribute to your community.
- Be able to commit to attend all of the sessions (details on Council's website) in order to understand, gain knowledge and experience the full benefits of the program.
